War in Kansas.

The telegraph brings us startling news from Kansas. The General Government is received at driving the Free State men to unconditional submission to the black laws passed by the Border Ruffians; and in case of resistance, to murder them by U. S. soldiery, burn up their habitations, and deliver the Territory over to the slave-holding invaders. At present the Administration is engaged in arresting every prominent Free State man in Kansas on a charge of Treason! In its tried by packed juries of Missourians, under the direction of an Alabama Judge. To enforce this dovelish persecution, the military is called out, and Lawrence is besieged, as the telegraph informs us. Where will this thing end? Will the North stand tamely and idly looking on while their noble kinsmen are being murdered to the Moloch of Slavery? Will not their blood call for vengeance like the blood of Abel? We await further news with deep solicitude.

Essex County Anti-Nebraska Convention.

The opponents of the Black Democracy in Essex County, have held their Convention for the appointment of delegates to the Bloomington Convention, a full report of the proceedings of which appears in the Decatur Chronicle of the 15th inst. The Convention was well attended, nearly all the precincts being represented, and much enthusiasm prevailed.

Isaac C. Pugh and Wm. J. Usrey were appointed delegates, and John Ricketts, John Wilkinson, Anderson Freeman, John Davis, W. W. Oglesby, and J. W. Chenoweth, alternates.

A series of resolutions of the strongest character were adopted, among which are the following:

Resolved, That our delegates to the Bloomington Convention are hereby instructed to vote for the first man, (who are with us in opinion and principle) on the first ballot, for the different State offices, without regard to their past political predilections, hoping that a thorough union of the friends of freedom in the State of Illinois will secure him preferment.

Resolved, That we will support the nominee of the Convention, be he whig, democrat, or freedomer. It is true he was white, and a democrat; but he was an ordering, and poor. To be more he left a wife and two children to mourn in poverty and misery his unlimed end. But what matter. The Democracy belongs to the upper crust of society!

So goes for Slavery Extension—for oligarchy! Of course his brother Doughfaces and Pilloucratism will screen him punishment. We do not mention this matter in the hope that it will lose Richardson a single Irish vote, or that it will cover the spots of any Celt to the base name the Slaveholder and demagogue makes of him, but simply to embalish the truth that, the Republicans are the party of equal rights, while the Black Democracy are the party of special privileges.

Kendall County.

Geneva, Monday—The McClary County Anti-Nebraska Convention was held at Woodstock on the 19th inst. Asa Stuart to the Chair, and W. J. A. Smith Secretary. B. P. Hyde, Anthony Overshire, and A. J. Foxlyn were appointed delegates to the Bloomington Convention, consisting of one from each town in the county. Their names are as follows: Samuel Richardson, of Bliss, O. G. Pierce, of Pavilion, Wesley Hughes of Oswego, A. D. Buck of Aldin, Nelson Hall of Kendall, George Kimball, of Seward, A. Stevens of Coral, Thomas Beatty of Geneva, C. W. Cook, of Dare, J. Tuttle, of Kendall, Wm. Hewitt, of Bristol, E. D. Allen, of Sandwich, Judah Wallace, of Sandy, J. Smith, of Algonquin.

Without any resolutions we adjourned with a Country yeaps and cheers for the Democracy during the day. The right spirit prevails and the delegates will give a good account of herself in Bloomington.

May 20th, 1856.

County Conventions—County Conventions are now being held all over the State preparatory to the Peoria Convention, which will be held on the 29th inst. The Springfield Journal of Saturday, contains a call, signed by a long list of citizens of that county, calling for a Convention of the people of Sangamon County to meet at Springfield on Saturday the 24th. The people of Macon held their Convention on Monday of last week. We notice calls for Conventions in Champaign, Edgar, Clark, Vermillion, Randolph, St. Clair, and other Southern counties. The Convention of Illinois Legion promises to be one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever assembled in the State.

Why so Much of Kansas.

Events occurring directly under our eyes do not assume that greatness or grandeur which belongs to them, and with which the future so fully invests them. "We cry of Kansas," says one, "we are tired of hearing about Kansas, and with that territory," says another equally uninformed. But a moment's reflection will give the reason why the people of the North are so much interested in the affairs of Kansas. The latter is dated Lawrence, April 27, 1856, and from it we copy the following extract as a sufficient reply to the blockhead. Gov. Robinson says:

"My vote for Col. Fremont, for Senator, was given for the reason that he was not only more likely to move for an aquatters than either of the other candidates, but he was the only candidate who would have the power, and I decided to vote in favor of keeping California a Free State. Col. Fremont made no concealment of his Free State sentiments, and was even more explicit to me as a Free State Squatters who had an interview with him."

Missouri General Convention.—In this body, on the 5th, the Western Book Concern report was made by the agents. The actual capital, after paying their proportion of the award to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and all other liabilities, is $150,650 72.

Since entering the last four years, there have been an increase over the four years previous of $85,367 37; sales of periodicals, $202,553 95—an increase of $20,254 61; total sales of the last four years, $849,849 73. The report of the Publishing Committee at New York was read.

It appears that the sales of the last four years amount in the aggregate to $1,699,394 19, with an aggregate profit of $191,509. This exhibit does not include the business of the Western Book Concern, which, if added to the above, will make a grand total of sales for the last four years of $1,899,394 91; and about $200,000 profits in the Western Concern to the $191,509, and the total profit will be $231,509.

A Congressman Killing an Irishman.

After murdering the Irish waiter at Willard's Hotel, Washington, Mr. Keitt, of South Carolina, resumed his seat in Congress, and participated in the business of the House for several days. At length Mr. Knowlton, of Maine,—a Republican member—introduced, on the 12th inst., a preamble setting forth the fact that Henry Ellis, alias Thomas Keating, an Irish waiter at Willard's Hotel—that he was then under $16,000 bonds to answer a charge of manslaughter—and that the Constitution gave the House power to punish or expel members for disorderly or criminal behavior, concluding with a resolution that the Speaker of the Committee of the House of Representatives, send for persons and papers and report as early as possible what action that body should take in the premises.

To ask the House to inquire, through its Judiciary Committee, into the murder of the Irishman Keating, in preference to and instead of, as we understand the effort, to expel Mr. Herbert from the seat his people elected him to, is bad. But the introduction of the resolution was the signal for a sudden uprising of Democratic and Know Nothing chivalry. A dozen sprang to their feet at once, charged with indignation and fury, and poured forth the mighty torrent of their eloquence in fierce language, declaring that the investigation be immediately stopped on the ground. A vote was taken on Stephens motion to smother investigation, which was carried—yeas 79, nays 78. All the Pierce and Douglas Democrats present, but with the Fillmore Know Nothings to secure the vote—and all the Democrats who were present, but with the Republicans, voted against the motion. All blackguard Democrats or Know Nothings who voted against investigation, and all Republicans are the party of equal rights, while the Black Democracy are the party of special privileges.
